Quinta da Biaia

Vinho Tinto, Beira Interior, 2015, 75cl

Wine-making and maturation

Aged in new French oak barrels for an impressive 50 months followed by bottle ageing for 8 months before release to the market

Tasting notes

A wine of great aromatic complexity, showing both intensity and precision and elegance. Notes of black fruit, berry jam, china ink, licorice, tobacco, dark chocolate and spices. In tasting, flavor and volume that seems endless, with silky tannins, all in a whole supported by a delicate and delicious acidity.
