XXVI Talhas

Vinho Branco, Alentejo, 2020, 75cl

Wine-making and maturation

A wine from yesteryear that recovers the tradition of keeping wine under olive oil. After fermenting and aging for six months in the carving, a careful selection of wine was removed from the 'mother' - wine masses - and aged in a pezgada carving for a year, covered in a layer of olive oil.

Pairing

Cold cuts, Pork, Lamb, Meat in general, Pasta

Tasting notes

Golden color. Aroma of dried fruit, smoke and pitch (beeswax and resin). Dry start, good acidity and a very long finish.
